PRESS RELEASE

Nori is a collection of contemporary mirrors made by Italian artisans in different shades and colors. It is part of the collectible design language Nori that has been developed by the Edizione Limitata's art research team in Milan. Nori is made up of elegant shapes of color that will catch the attention of all who pass in front of it. It is not just a reflective surface but a unique piece inspired by the unpredictability of splashes of color. Nori's language plays with its chiaroscuro contrasts in a spontaneous way and its organic forms exchange light with each other with extreme lightness.
