PRESS RELEASE

Nova is a collection of contemporary mirrors made by Italian artisans in brushed brass. It is part of the collectible design language Nova that has been developed by the Edizione Limitata's art research team in Milan. Geometrical shapes are assembled into a rational reflective composition that provides a distinctive point of view to the surrounding interior. Nori's language plays with its chiaroscuro contrasts in a spontaneous way and its organic forms exchange light with each other with extreme lightness.
