PRESS RELEASE

Opera is a 21st Century collection of sculptural vases made by Italian artisans. It is part of the collectible design language Opera that has been developed by the Edizione Limitata's art research team in Milan. The piece arose from a study on revolution solids and hundreds of harmonic shapes tests. The results resemble instruments from a different culture with a long story that will be narrated in a new interior.

An elegant, lyrical language, where the conical shape of glass, a sharp material, subdues a soft base firmly planted in the marble ground.

Images show a V1 version in Oreo Grey + Shiny Glass and a V2 version in Rosso Balmoral + Shiny Glass
